Wealth of Nation Mounts Up

Ohio, with $8,806,000,000; California, $8,464,000,000; Iowa, $7,868,000,000; Texas, $6,869,000,000; Massachusetts, $6,303,000,000; Missouri, $5,842,000,000; New Jersey, $5,743,000,000; Minnesota, $5,547,000,000; Michigan, $5,427,000,000; and Indiana, $5,185,000,000. No other state is credited with as much as $5,000,000,000.

When the comparisons are applied on a per capita basis, however, a very different showing is made. The highest per capita figure for wealth in the hands of individuals and commercial organizations—that is, exclusive of the non-taxable property owned by governmental, educational, charitable and religious institutions—is given for Nevada, $4,865. Next in order come Iowa, with $3,345; North Dakota, $3,219; California, $3,113; Nebraska, $2,954; Montana, $2,743; Colorado, $2,668; Kansas, $2,525; Oregon, $2,523; and Illinois, $2,507. In no other state was the figure as high as $2,500. Only three states—Illinois, California and Iowa—for which the total valuations were high, also showed high per capita figures.

That assessed valuations do not, in themselves, furnish any index to the actual wealth of the various states, is brought out in a striking manner by a table showing ratios between assessed and estimated true valuations of property throughout the United States. These ratios vary from 11.7 percent in Iowa to 10 percent in New Hampshire and Wyoming. In 11 states they are 23 1/3 per cent or less; in 24 states, 50 per cent or less, and in 13 states, 66 2/3 per cent or more.

Wealth of Other Countries. The latest published estimates of the wealth of foreign countries show $108,280,000,000 for the British empire in 1903, of which amount $72,997,000,000 was credited to the United Kingdom. The estimate for the United States in 1904 was $107,104,000,000. The wealth of Germany in 1908 was estimated at $77,864,000,000. Comparable estimates are not available for other nations.

gospel truth most tales of valor depicted in soldier letters to London newspapers, it is taking the latest with just a pinch of salt.

One "Tommy" told how a horse picked up his fallen rider with his mouth and carried him to safety. The story reached the trenches and another "Tommy" having read it wrote the following:

"I should like to add a few words further to enhance this noble steed's deeds on that memorable day.

"It was during the retreat from Mons that I saw this happen:

"After the horse had saved its rider we were hard pressed, when this noble steed again showed his pluck. He picked up a loaded rifle, and, holding it between his fore feet, he worked the bolt and pulled the trigger with his tongue, thus keeping about thirty Germans at bay. After this bold horse had expended all the ammunition in the rifle he drew the sword (which was in the saddle at his back) with his teeth and gallantly charged the few Germans who still remained alive.

"I might mention that before we went to the front this horse used to throw his rider and then trot to the guard room and fetch the 'stretchers'."

Took Long to Develop Pens. In the United States the first attempt to manufacture a gold pen was in 1835 by a watchmaker of Detroit. In 1860 an attempt was made in the United States to manufacture a fountain pen, but it was not until 1879 that they were constructed successfully.

GLEAN-UP STARTS IN INDIANAPOLIS

By United Press.

Indianapolis, May 20.—Various gentlemen of good repute who are said to own property rented for immoral resorts, but who have so far avoided any publicity in this regard, are trembling in their boots this week. The Church Federation of Indianapolis is unlimbering a large caliber weapon in the form of a new law that churchmen say will put the red light business on the blink.

The new law is very similar to the one in effect in the District of Columbia and in several states. It allows any citizen or the county prosecutor to begin injunction proceedings. These proceedings are directed at the owner of the property. "Pitiless publicity" that will cause the owners of bawdy houses to run to cover in case they are sailing under false colors is expected to follow when the churchmen get down to work.

The renting of property in the flour-

Terre Haute, which is said to have the largest red light district in the world for a city its size, is facing much the same proposition.
